

Animal &
Plant Health
Agency

APHA Briefing Note 45/24

Changes to the Vet Gateway website – New Location of Instructions and Communications

Date issued: 27 November 2024

Purpose

1. To provide information on how to find content that has been migrated from the Vet Gateway website to the Improve International AHP website, specifically:
2. To inform all Approved Tuberculin Testers (ATTs) how to locate the ATT Instructions.
3. To inform all Food Competent Certifying Officers (FCCOs) and Animal Health Paraprofessionals (AHPs) how to locate the APHA Briefing Notes and Newsletters.

Location of ATT Instructions

4. To access the ATT instructions, open the Improve International AHP website and click on Instructions and Notifications. You will be presented with four options to enable you to view the Instructions, Newsletters, the AHP Briefing Notes or the FCCO Briefing Notes.

APHA is an Executive Agency of the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs and also works on behalf of the Scottish Government, Welsh Government and Food Standards Agency to safeguard animal and plant health for the benefit of people, the environment and the economy.

- To locate the ATT instructions, click on the Instructions link. Click on the Approved Tuberculin Testers link and you will be presented with an option to view the latest updates or the documents at the top of the screen. Click on Approved Tuberculin Testers documents and it will display all the documents for that work area.

Location of Briefing Notes and Newsletters

- To locate the Newsletters, AHP Briefing Notes or FCCO Briefing Notes open the Improve International AHP website and click on Instructions and Notifications and then click on the relevant option.

Further Information

7. If you receive an error message when trying to access any content, please ensure you have deleted any favourites and/or shortcuts you may have saved to those pages from the Vet Gateway website and also clear your cache/browser history which should resolve the issue.
8. If you have any queries about the content migration, or are still encountering issues after following the steps above, please contact webmaster@apha.gov.uk

APHA is an Executive Agency of the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs and also works on behalf of the Scottish Government, Welsh Government and Food Standards Agency to safeguard animal and plant health for the benefit of people, the environment and the economy.